Another Saturday, another careless move
Tells the world that you're thinking of what to do
A window opens up and some one calls your name
But I can tell you don't know how to play this game
I know this isn't it
You'll hit your target someday
So now your on your own, won't you come back home
To see you're not that kind and find the strength, and find the strength
To find another way
To find another way
To find another way
To find another way
So tell me what you need and I'll accommodate
But if too long goes by you just might be too late
An opportunity you can't afford to waste
So have the lines in your head first for heaven's sake
You hear the day beckoning
Know what it's all in your head
So now your on your own, won't you come back home
To see you're not that kind and find the strength, and find the strength
To find another way
So now your on your own won't you come back home
To see you're not that kind and find the strength, and find the strength
So now your on your own, won't you come back home
To see you're not that kind and find the strength, and find the strength
To find another way
