1st Verse:

U say, I say, U say, I say, u say, I say, but now your out there playin games
I knew that you would never change.
You say that you love me but you still be wildin out all of this yelling all of this fussing over just nothing in my house.
I pray to my Savior and hope he would just help me out cause all of this confusion got me just losing sight of what I should be doing now.
I can't lie I don't wanna waste no more time
I can't see why you never tried to do me right.
I can't lie I don't wanna waste no more time
I can't see why you never tried to do me right.

Chorus:

U say that you love me,
I say that I love you,
U say we don't ever have to fight,
I say I don't wanna ever cry,
U say you would never play the field,
I say I would always keep it real,
but now you're out there playin games
I knew that you would never change.

2nd Verse:

I try to be patient to see if you could figure out with all your lying and all you denying,
I cannot keep you around,
u know that I love you, it's gonna hurt me to see you leave,
I can't go through being misused, cause you know that ain't me.

Chorus:

I can't lie I don't wanna waste no more time,
I can't see why you never tried to do me right.
I can't lie I don't wanna waste no more time,

I can't see why you never tried to do me right.

U say that you love me,

I say that I love you,

U say we don't ever have to fight,

I say I don't wanna ever cry,

U say u would never play the field,

I say I would always keep it real,

but now you're out there playin games

I knew that you would never change.

3rd Verse:

I'm cool with whatever cause it's been so long,

all of this nonsense you doing only made me strong,

but if we stay together it's got to be some change,

I don't even wanna hear another calling your name,

I'm cool with whatever cause it's been so long,

all of this nonsense you doing only made me strong,

I'll don't think we'll be together cause you'll never change, already set inside your ways, you'll always be the same.

Chorus:

U say u really love me,

I say I really love you,

U say we don't ever have to fight,

I say I don't wanna ever cry,

U say you would never play the field,

I say I would always keep it real,

but now you're out there playin games

I knew that you would never change.
